Food Link Colshaw

Some of the food that we send up to Colshaw is being consumed by residents of the flats maintained by the local authority for those who have been homeless. For those people, it is an important help in their quest to regain both personal independence and paid work.

We recently received the following note of thanks from FoodLink (Also included with the note is a picture showing the recent children's nativity held at Christ Church, Food Link - please see noticeboard):

"Dear Friends,

Just a small card with a very big thank you for all the food you have given us. Over December we gave out 83 bags of groceries! For January up until now, we have given out 35 bags.

Thank you for your kindness. Many Blessings, FoodLink."
