

Department of New Evangelisation

The diocese is pleased to announce two important events to help us all deepen our commitment to New Evangelisation:

1) Developing a Culture of Vocation: Saturday 16th May, 2015 (10.30 am – 3.30 pm)

Fr. Christopher Jamison OSB will be in the diocese to help us not only explore our own specific vocation but also to discover how, together, we can develop a culture of vocation as a basis for new evangelisation. On 16th May, all are invited to Fr. Christopher's encounter with the Laity where we will be looking at the fundamental vocation to holiness arising out of our Baptism; the single life lived out in its various forms; and the call to Marriage & Family Life. The venue will be Ellesmere Port Catholic High School, CH65 7AQ. Further info at www.dioceseofshrewsbury.org

2) Proclaim'15: Building Missionary Parishes, Saturday 11th July, 2015, Birmingham

This has been launched to help parishes become more effective in their missionary outreach. The day will include speakers and workshops. Each diocese has been attributed 35 places; there are still some available for our own diocese. Further information <http://www.catholicnews.org.uk/proclaim15>

The Visit of the Miraculous Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe from 9th-15th of May at Shrewsbury Cathedral

The Miraculous Relic Image of Our Lady of Guadalupe is one of two hundred and twenty digital copies created and sent to each nation of the world. It is a relic because the image has been consecrated while touching the original image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The image will be formally welcomed into the Cathedral on the Saturday afternoon and will remain in the Cathedral for prayer and veneration until the following Friday. The Cathedral will be open daily from 10am until 5:30pm during the seven days of the visit. (7.30am-7pm on the Sunday). Bishop Davies will preside at the Service of Reception, the official beginning of the visit, at 4pm on Saturday the 9th of May (the image will be available to visit and for prayer from lunchtime) and the image will be sent to St Chad's Cathedral in Birmingham following the 12:12 Mass on Friday the 15th May. It would be wonderful to see pilgrims visiting the Cathedral from across the Diocese and praying before the image and we look forward to welcoming you at the Cathedral. Canon Jonathan Mitchell, Cathedral Dean.
