'Adoremus' Eucharistic Congress, Liverpool: September 7 - 9 – Diocese Ticket Update

We are delighted that the ticket allocation for Friday's Symposium Day at the Eucharistic Congress for our diocese has now been exceeded. Any further ticket requests will be added to a waiting list and spare tickets from other dioceses will then be reallocated on a first come first served basis by the organisers in London. All bookings for Friday that have been received to date have secured places.

Tickets for Saturday's Congress Day are readily available and any interested parishioners are warmly encouraged to attend this national gathering of Catholics and be part of this historic event. Currently representatives from 38 parishes in the diocese have booked places and we have two thirds of our diocesan allocation left. Those who wish to participate in the Congress are encouraged to send in their booking forms via the parish as soon as possible. Payment to be made directly to the parish please. Information regarding tickets for Sunday Mass only will be communicated when we have it. This has been understood to be an online only booking system.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC TEACHER BUT NOT TEACHING IN A CATHOLIC SCHOOL?

YOUR DIOCESE NEEDS YOU!!!

The Department for Education wants to recruit as many Catholic teachers to its schools as possible, and is aware that across the Diocese there are a number of Catholic teachers who are not currently or have never worked in a Catholic school. Sometimes making the transition back to Catholic education can be perceived as being difficult and therefore we would like to offer support to those teachers who are considering returning to the Catholic sector or would like more information on the appointment process in our schools.

We are holding an informal session on Saturday 30th June at St Hugh's Parish Hall, 314 Manchester Road, West Timperley, Altrincham, WA14 5NB from 10 am – 12 pm, with Mass available at 12.15 pm. If you would like to attend or want further information about returning to Catholic education please e-mail Sue Jenkinson on sue.jenkinson@dioceseofshrewsbury.org
