From Bishop Mark: Statement from Archbishop Sherrington on the Assisted Dying Bill

Please find copies in your church porches of the statement from the Catholic Bishops of England and Wales on the now fast approaching and crucial parliamentary vote on assisted suicide expected either a week tomorrow, Friday 13th June, or the following Friday, 20th June. The statement is written by Archbishop John Sherrington and reiterates our opposition to the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill in both principle and practice while high-lighting three areas of grave concern relating to the impact of the proposed legislation on hospices and care homes; on health and social care workers; and the wholly inadequate 'safeguards' against the coercion of some of the most vulnerable all of which should be brought to the attention of Members of Parliament who are undecided or considering supporting this dangerous and deeply flawed Bill at Third Reading.

NEW WEBSITE

We now have a new and simple website for the three churches at www.wilmslowcatholic.com. The weekly newsletter is posted near the top of the website. There are links to the individual churches' websites. Many thanks for the generosity of the two parishioners of St Benedict's who have paid for the initial construction and annual hosting of the website.
