CAFOD Short Talk & Appeal Following the Family Fast Day Appeal, there will be a short talk from a CAFOD speaker before the final blessing of the Sunday Masses next week. The speaker at the 10 am Mass will be Jane McCall, who is a CAFOD volunteer and an experienced public speaker. The 5.30 pm Mass will be Helen Butler, our parish volunteer at St Benedict's. As well as thanking the parish for all they do already to support our work, the speaker will share the story of Daniel, a young man from Goma in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) who, with the knowledge and training he received to be a carpenter through CAFOD and its partner agencies, is now able to earn money to support his family and community. Daniel told us: "I never want anyone to go through the life I had when I was younger. "If God helps and this work expands, I can do greater things,"

Sunday's Gospel Reading is taken from Mark 9:38-43,45,47-48

Do not stop anyone from working a miracle in my name

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.

'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.

'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'
